17th Biennial Conference of the International Society for Comparative Physical Education and Sport (ISCPES) June 6th-8th 2010 Nairobi, Kenya

Hosting University:

Kenyatta University, Department of Physical and Health Education and Department of Recreation
Management and Exercise Science
Venue----Safari Park Hotel

Welcoming Remarks

Welcome to the 17th Biennial Conference of the International Society for Comparative Physical Education and Sport (ISCPES) . May we take this opportunity to welcome you warmly to Kenya-the home of exquisite distance runners. This conference is very important to us as it is coming at a time when the FIFA 2010 World Cup is coming home - that is Africa.

The 2010 Conference provides you with the opportunity to hear about many past, present and emerging issues in the realm of Physical Education and Sport. In addition, your experience during the conference period will be enriched by the Safari CATS, Tour of Nairobi National Park and other exciting activities.

Please enjoy the African Hospitality.

Thank you

Local Organizing Committee

Kenya---The Hosting Country

The Republic of Kenya is a country in East Africa. The country is named after Mount Kenya, a significant landmark and the second among the highest mountain peaks of Africa. Kenya is active in several sports, among them cricket, rallying, football (soccer), rugby union and boxing. Kenya is one of the world's great tourism destinations, known for its remarkable diversity of landscapes, wildlife and cultures. From sweeping savannahs to tropical beaches and coral reef, dense equatorial forests to mighty snow capped mountains and more, Kenya is a world unto itself. Kenya is Africa's original safari destination, attracting explorers, adventurers and travellers for centuries.

Transportation

Kenya has a relatively well-developed transport system that compares well with other countries in the region. Kenya has an extensive network of paved and unpaved roads. The railway system links the nations ports and major cities. A line also connects Kenya with neighboring Uganda. There are 15 airports with paved runways.
